The Sponsor reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to disqualify any entrant who submits an App Submission that does not meet the Requirements.

6. JUDGING: Each of the four Challenges will have a different method for review and judging. Each entry will be judged by a panel of experts who are employees or partners of Sponsor (“Judges”). For each challenge, a blog post will announce the full details and rules of the requirements for each Challenge and the post (or a link to the post) along with a link to submit an entry will be available at the Contest Site. Specifically, developers will be asked to create a set of Android application screens using Jetpack Compose, and completed entries will require the developer to share screenshots of their application screens and the code used to create it as a repository on GitHub.com. These entries will be reviewed by Google to confirm they used Jetpack Compose and according to the Challenge requirements set out in the Android Developers post for that week’s Challenge. On or about April 1, each App Submission will be evaluated by the Judges based on the following criteria for the four Challenges:

- Week 1 & 2: The first 500 App Submissions in each week who the Judges review to have complete submissions will receive an Entry Prize.
- Week 3: The App Submission that is first submitted for each of the three speed challenges, after being reviewed by the Judges to be complete according to the stated criteria on the entry page for the Challenge that week, will receive a Grand Prize, resulting in three Grand Prize winners.
- Week 4: App Submissions will be reviewed by Judges against five criteria: visual beauty, novelty of idea, code quality, and overall execution (including accessibility). A Grand Prize will be given to the top winner in each of these categories

On or about APRIL 15, 2021, the potential winner(s) will be selected and notified by telephone and/or email, at Sponsor's discretion. If a potential winner does not respond to the notification attempt within 10 DAYS days from the first notification attempt, then such potential winner will be disqualified and an alternate potential winner will be selected from among all eligible entries received based on the judging criteria described herein. With respect to notification by telephone, such notification will be deemed given when the potential winner engages in a live conversation with Sponsor or when a message is left on the potential winner's voicemail service or answering machine by the Sponsor, whichever occurs first. Except where prohibited by law, each potential winner may be required to sign and return a Declaration of Eligibility and Liability and Publicity Release and provide any additional information that may be required by Sponsor. If required, potential winners must return all such required documents within ten (10) DAYS days following attempted notification or such potential winner will be deemed to have forfeited the prize and another potential winner will be selected based on the judging criteria described herein. In the event the potential winner is a minor, his or her parent or legal guardian must sign the documents and return them as described herein.
