What can be found on EUR-Lex

EUR-Lex gives you access to EU legislation, case-law and other legal documents coming mostly from the EU institutions, but also from EU Member States, European Free Trade Association (EFTA) institutions, etc., including:

- treaties;
- legal acts from EU institutions;
- preparatory documents related to EU legislation;
- EU case-law;
- international agreements;
- EFTA documents;
- references to national transposition measures and also texts of national transposition measures for those Member States that have agreed to provide them;
- references to national case-law related to EU law.

EUR-Lex publishes the authentic version of the Official Journal of the European Union.

In addition, it provides:

- the main stages of the procedures leading to the adoption of legal acts;
- consolidated texts combining the initial legal acts and all their amendments into single documents;
- over 2,000 summaries of EU legislation explaining EU legislation in a plain, easy-to-read and concise way.

From the start of the eighth parliamentary term (25 May 2014), parliamentary questions are no longer published in the Official Journal or on EUR-Lex. They are now published on the European Parliament's website.

Detailed overview of the types of documents available on EUR-Lex.

EUR-Lex is updated daily with the publication of the Official Journal, individual documents published in the Official Journal, other documents or procedures, case-law and legal and bibliographic information (metadata).

The authentic electronic version of the Official Journal is published in PDF, together with its electronic signature. The HTML version is also available for information purposes, but it is not authentic.

Each document published in the Official Journal is processed for publication on EUR-Lex. On the day of publication, only the title and publication references are available with the individual act. Full legal and bibliographic information is published within 2 working days. This explains why there is a short time lapse between the availability of the Official Journal itself and the subsequent ability to find individual acts.

The frequency of updates of other documents varies because they come from different institutional sources. For instance, the national transposition measures are updated once a week.

Linguistic coverage

The interface of the website is available in all 24 EU official languages.

For documents, the available languages depend on the EU official languages that existed when the documents were adopted.

This is why linguistic coverage is greater for the 4 official languages of the EU's founding members: Dutch, French, German and Italian.

The oldest documents on EUR-Lex in particular are not available in the languages that were added when countries joined later on: English and Danish (1973); Greek (1981); Spanish and Portuguese (1986); Finnish and Swedish (1995); Czech, Estonian, Hungarian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Slovak and Slovenian (2004); Bulgarian and Romanian (2007); and Croatian (2013).

However, when a country joins the EU, the EU legislation in force at the time is translated into the official language of this country and is compiled in the Special Editions of the Official Journal.

Documents in Irish

Depending on the type of document and year of publication, not all documents are available in Irish on EUR-Lex.

Legal acts currently available in Irish are:

- key legislation adopted jointly by the European Parliament and the Council;
- some treaties.

Irish became a full EU official language on 1 January 2007. However, for practical reasons and on a transitional basis, the EU institutions were exempted from the obligation to draft all acts in Irish or translate them. This temporary derogation was introduced for a renewable period of 5 years.

Council Regulation \(EC\) No 920/2005 of 13 June 2005 stated that 'the institutions of the European Union shall not be bound by the obligation to draft all acts in Irish and to publish them in that language in the Official Journal of the European Union', except for regulations adopted jointly by the European Parliament and the Council.

The derogation was extended twice, with the scope gradually reduced each time:

- until 31 December 2016 by Council Regulation \(EU\) No 1257/2010
- until 31 December 2021 by Council Regulation \(EU, Euratom\) 2015/2264.

Numbering of acts

The numbering of acts varies according to the type of act and year of publication.

Acts of the L series of the Official Journal

With the exception of international agreements and corrigenda, all acts and other texts receive a number. This number is unique and is either part of the title or placed at the end of the title in square brackets. It also represents the number of the Official Journal in which the act or other text is published.

The number of an act is made up of three parts.

- Domain abbreviation in brackets

Abbreviation	Description
(EU)	European Union
(Euratom)	European Atomic Energy Community
(EU, Euratom)	European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community
(CFSP)	common foreign and security policy

- Year of publication: four digits
- Sequential number: This number is based on a yearly sequence and comprises as many digits as necessary.

NB: For certain acts, the number assigned by the Publications Office does not include a domain and is placed in square brackets at the end of the title. This number is not considered to be part of the title and is not cited in references to the act in question.

Please consult the Interinstitutional Style Guide for more information on the numbering of acts published in the L series over time, dual numbering, unnumbered acts and other texts, etc.

Documents of the C series of the Official Journal

With the exception of corrigenda, documents published in the C series are assigned a notice number that consists of:

- the letter 'C' corresponding to the C series;
- the year of publication, comprising four digits;
- the sequential number, based on a yearly sequence and comprising as many digits as necessary.

The notice number is identical to the Official Journal number that appears in the header of the Official Journal.

Please consult the Interinstitutional Style Guide for more information on the numbering of documents published in the C series over time, special numbering, unnumbered acts and other texts, etc.

ECLI - European Case-Law Identifier

The ECLI is a uniform identifier that enables you to identify judicial decisions more easily. It also makes it easier to access, search for, identify, cite and link EU and national case-law. The identifier consists of five parts in the following order, with each separated by a colon:

- 1 Abbreviation "ECLI"
- 2 Country code (2 characters)
- 3 Court code (1-7 characters)
- 4 Year of the decision (4 digits)
- 5 Unique identifying number (max. 25 characters, dots allowed)

Examples (Court of Justice of the European Union):

ECLI	Document
ECLI:EU:C:1998:27	27th decision by the Court of Justice in 1998
ECLI:EU:F:2010:80	80th decision by the Civil Service Tribunal in 2010
ECLI:EU:T:2012:426	426th decision by the General Court in 2012

The fifth part of the Court of Justice of the European Union's ECLI is a sequential number, restarted every year and specific for each court (Court of Justice, General Court, Civil Service Tribunal). It is not the CELEX number.

The ECLI was introduced further to Council Conclusions 2011/C 127/01.

The ECLI search engine on the European e-justice portal lets you search for legal decisions /judgments with an ECLI.

ELI - European Legislation Identifier

The European Legislation Identifier (ELI) is a system to make legislation available online in a standardised format, so that it can be accessed, exchanged and reused across borders. ELIs use HTTP URIs (Uniform Resource Identifiers), which can be read by both humans and computers. They also propose a set of metadata elements to describe legislation and include a specific language for exchanging legislation in a machine-readable format.

At EU level, ELIs are assigned to a wide range of legislation published in the L series (regulations, directives, decisions) of the Official Journal of the European Union and to consolidated acts.

From your personal account or 'Customise shown information', you can set your preferences so that the ELI appears in the results. It is always displayed on the document page.

ELIs have also been deployed in a number of national legislation publishing systems (see the list). They are implemented on a voluntary basis.

Examples

The simplest type of ELI structure is this:

`http://data.europa.eu/eli/{typeOfDocument}/{yearOfAdoption}/
{numberOfDocument}/oj`

The ELI for Decision 2009/496/EC is <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2009/496/oj>

ELI is progressively extending its scope to subdivisions of acts (citations, recitals, articles, etc.). The ELI for article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2019/1241 is: https://eur-lex.europa.eu/eli/reg/2019/1241/art_2/oj

For more information on ELI implementation at national and EU level, see the ELI register page and a summary of Council conclusions on the introduction of the ELI.

CELEX numbers

A CELEX number is a unique identifier assigned to a document. It is independent of the language of the document. Most documents on EUR-Lex are assigned a CELEX number. A CELEX number has different parts, which vary slightly depending on the type of document. The most common case is to have the following 4 parts: Sector – Year – Document type – Document number.

For example, the CELEX number of the EU Water Framework Directive is 32000L0060. It consists of 4 parts:

- sector: 3 (for legal acts)
- year: 2000
- document type: L (for Directive)
- document number: 0060.

If you hover over a CELEX number on EUR-Lex you can see the full title of the document.

Sector

Documents in EUR-Lex fall into one of 12 sectors.

1. Treaties
2. International agreements
3. Legal acts
4. Complementary legislation
5. Preparatory documents
6. EU case-law
7. National transposition
8. References to national case-law concerning EU law
9. Parliamentary questions

- 0. Consolidated texts
- C. Other documents published in the Official Journal C series
- E. EFTA documents

Year

The year usually describes when the document was adopted.

Document type

Each document type has a descriptor. Descriptors can have 1 or 2 letters.

Some common descriptors:

Sector 3 - Legal acts

- L for Directives
- R for Regulations
- D for Decisions

Sector 5 - Preparatory documents

- PC for Legislative proposals by the Commission (COM documents), etc.
- DC for other COM documents (green and white papers, communications, reports...)
- SC for SWD documents (staff working documents, impact assessments...)
- JC for JOIN documents (adopted jointly by the Commission and the High Representative)

Sector 6 - EU case-law

- CJ for Judgments by Court of Justice
- CC for Opinions of the advocate-general
- CO for Orders of the Court of Justice

Full list of descriptors

Document number

Most CELEX numbers end in 4 digits. These reflect different types of information, e.g.:

- Official number - e.g. 32017R2394: a sequential number attributed to the document at the moment of its publication in the Official Journal. It is assigned by the Publications Office.
- Internal number - e.g. 52018PC0033: assigned by the author of the document, here the Commission (PC).

- Date of publication - e.g. 32012A0424(01): the month and day of publication in the Official Journal. It is followed by a sequential number in brackets, as other similar CELEX numbers might have been published on the same day.

Examples by sector

▪ Treaties (sector 1)

There are 3 digits or a letter code after the descriptor. They indicate the number of an article of the Treaty.

Example: 11957E086 is the number for Article 86 of the EEC treaty (1957).

Consolidated versions of Treaties are indicated by the year of consolidation.

Example: Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union:

12016E – table of contents, consolidated version 2016

12016E/TXT – consolidated version 2016

12016E003 – Article 3, consolidated version 2016.

▪ International agreements (sector 2)

International agreements are identified by their publication date.

Example: International agreement 22006A1230(03) was published in the Official Journal on 30 December 2006.

If several agreements are published on the same day, only the number in brackets changes: e.g. 22006A1230 (01).

▪ Case-law (sector 6)

The year is the one in which the case entered the Court's register.

The document number is based on the case number issued by the Court of Justice.

Example: 6 2004 TJ0 201 relates to the judgment in the 201st case entered in the register in 2004. The case number is T-201/04.

▪ National transposition measures (sector 7)

The first 10 characters are identical to those of the CELEX number of the transposed act, with the exception of the first one, which represents the CELEX sector: 3 ('Legal acts') and is replaced by 7 ('National transposition'). The following 9 characters represent the year, type and unique number of the transposed act.

After the first 10 characters, a 3-letter country code indicates the Member State that is the author of the given national transposition measure.

At the end of the CELEX number, the number following the underscore is the unique identifier from the database of the Secretariat-General of the Commission. These identifiers are of 2 types, the most recent one including a year prefix.

Examples:

72018L2002POL_285543

72013L0032AUT_202103576

Identifiers with an asterisk are used for display purposes only, when the same unique transposition measure implements more than one legal act. They are not real CELEX numbers. The asterisk replaces the part of the identifier inherited from the transposed acts.

Example: 7*EST_202103476 is displayed for a measure transposing 2 directives.

There are 2 different CELEX numbers attributed to this measure:

72013L0034EST_202103476 and 72014L0095EST_202103476

- Corrigenda

Corrigenda have the same number as the document they are correcting, with R(xx) added at the end (xx being the number of the corrigendum).

Example: 32009L0164R(01) is the first corrigendum to Directive 32009L0164.

A corrigendum may relate to one or more language versions – or even all of them.

- Consolidated texts (sector 0)

Consolidated texts have the same number as the basic act – but their sector is '0'.

It is followed by the date of application of the last amendment to the act.

Example: 02009L0156-20161018

Directory of case-law

The directory of case-law is a numerical classification tool that gives you access to the judgments and orders of the Court of Justice, General Court and Civil Service Tribunal by subject.

Following the changes brought by the Treaty of Lisbon, the classification scheme – used to analyse case-law from 1954 to 2009 – was modified.

The new scheme has been applicable to case-law since 2010. It consists of 9 main chapters, further divided in several sub-chapters.

By default, EUR-Lex displays the current classification scheme. If you want to use the one that was applicable until 2009, click Go to classification scheme before the Lisbon Treaty (2009).

Experimental features

EUR-Lex allows you try a range of new features and provide feedback before they become standard for all users.

To activate one of these experimental features:

- tick the white box next to the 'Experimental features' button at the top of the page;
- click on the 'Experimental features' button;
- select the features you want to enable;
- click on 'Activate features selected'.

A specific icon indicates that an experimental feature is active on your page. By hovering over this icon, you can read a short description of the feature.

See below more information on the experimental features currently available.

Deep linking is a feature that makes it possible to display links to other legal acts referred to in EUR-Lex documents.

Article 1

Extension of the term of Community plant variety rights

1. The term of the Community plant variety rights, as provided for in Article 19\(1\) of Regulation \(EC\) No 2100/94, shall, for varieties of the species Asparagus officinalis L. and of the species groups flower bulbs, woody small fruits and woody ornamentals, be extended by five years.
2. Paragraph 1 of this Article is without prejudice to Article 116(4), fourth indent, of Regulation \(EC\) No 2100/94.

During the first phase, links can only be enabled in documents with a maximum size of 900 KB.

It is currently only available for legal acts.

You can see at a glance all the relationships between an act and the documents related to it.

In the Document information page, click Show relationship graph. The central node represents the act, with all the nodes around it representing related documents. Documents of the same type (amendments, delegated acts, consolidated versions...) have nodes of the same colour.

Nodes with a '+' icon indicate that further subcategories of documents are available.

Nodes with a 'file' icon represent documents. Click them to go to the related document pages.

When you hover over these nodes, the CELEX numbers of the documents appear. If the node represents a procedure, a specific icon is displayed.

A filter table lets you display different document categories.

It is currently only for links to treaties and case-law and is available first in English.

The links pointing to documents are normally clickable CELEX numbers. To make these links more meaningful, we are gradually replacing them with plain text.

Example: A link to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union will be TFEU (2016) instead of 12016E043.

Search tips

Need more search options? Use the Advanced search

You can use the quick search to perform a general search, using free text like a word, phrase or number.

It searches only in the language selected for the website's interface and looks for results in a wide range of fields: title, text of documents, identifier, related information, etc.

The quick search is available at the top of any EUR-Lex page.

It generally returns a high number of results. There are different ways to narrow your search results to find exactly what you want. You can use:

1 Wildcards

- quotation marks (" ") to search for an exact phrase
- an asterisk (*) to replace any number of characters

Example: transport* will find transportation, transporting, etc.

This also works for document numbers

- a question mark (?) instead of a single character in your search term to find variations of it

Example: ca?e finds case, cane, care.

To see these tips, click Search tips or the quick search box.

Use quotation marks to search for an "exact phrase". Append an asterisk (*) to a search term to find variations of it (transp *, 32019R *). Use a question mark (?) instead of a single character in your search term to find variations of it (ca ? e finds case, cane, care).

Search hints:

In the first field, type a word, a number or a sequence of words and/or numbers. By default, the two checkboxes 'in title' and 'in text' are ticked. This means that the system will search your keywords in both the titles and the texts of the documents. If you want to search only in the titles, then untick 'in text'. And if you want to search only in the texts of the documents and not in their titles, then untick 'in title'.

If needed, EUR-Lex lets you fill in a second field and link it to the first one with the operators 'AND', 'OR' and 'NOT'.

For example, we can search for documents that have 'environment' in their title and 'transport' in their text.

Search by date

In the Search by date box, you can select one of the dates that characterize the document(s) you are looking for. For instance, the date when the document was adopted or published in the Official Journal, or the date when the document will take effect. If you do not want to select a specific type of date, choose All dates.

You can also indicate a specific date (day/month/year; month/year or year only) or a range of dates.

The screenshot shows the 'Search by date' section of the EUR-lex search interface. The 'Type of date' dropdown menu is open, displaying a list of date types: 'All dates', 'Date of document', 'Date of publication', 'Date of effect', 'Date of end of validity', 'Date of notification', 'Date of signature', 'Date of transposition', 'Date lodged', 'Delivery date', 'Date of deadline', 'Reply date', 'Date of vote', and 'Date of debate'. The 'All dates' option is highlighted. To the right, the 'Specific date' radio button is selected, and the 'Valid formats' box lists 'yyyy', 'mm/yyyy', and 'dd/mm/yyyy'. The 'Date range' radio button is also visible, along with input fields for 'Number' and 'Initial page'.

Published in the Official Journal

The search criteria of the Published in the Official Journal box let you limit your search to documents published in some editions of the Official Journal of the European Union.

You can restrict your search to a specific year, a specific OJ series or a specific edition of the Official Journal if you know its number. You can even run a search based on the page number of an Official Journal in which a document starts.

EUR-lex also allows you to run searches that are limited to a special edition of the Official Journal.

In the Documents related to a legislative procedure box, you can build a search query that will limit the search to documents related to a specific type of procedure (for instance an ordinary legislative procedure or a non-legislative procedure) and, if you wish, to a precise year.

You can also limit the search to the documents related to a specific procedure by typing its number (for instance 2005/0042/COD) in the Number field.

The screenshot shows a search interface with the following elements:

- Documents related to a legislative procedure: A section with three input fields: Year, Number, and Type of legislative procedure. The Type of legislative procedure dropdown menu is open, showing options: All, Ordinary legislative procedure (COD), Special legislative procedure — EP consulted (CNS), Special legislative procedure — EP consent required (APP), Non-legislative procedure (NLE), and Budgetary procedure (BUD).
- Show only documents available in: A section with a dropdown menu labeled All these languages showing Any language.

Show only documents available in

The Show only documents available in box allows you to limit the search to documents published in one or several languages.

For example, if you select 'Spanish', the system will search for all the documents that have been published in Spanish.

The screenshot shows a search interface with the following elements:

- Show only documents available in: A section with a dropdown menu labeled All these languages showing Any language. The dropdown menu is open, showing options: Bulgarian, Spanish (highlighted), Czech, and Danish.
- Need more search options? Use the Expert search: A link to the Expert search page.

If you are using EUR-Lex in another language than the one you have selected in the Show only documents available in box, your search will return documents that have been published in the selected language, but you will see them in the language of your interface. In the example above, we have selected 'Spanish' while the user interface is English. The system will return documents that have been published in Spanish but will show them in the results list in English.

Depending on the collection you have chosen at the top of the advanced search form, there may be a few more search options available. If you have any doubts on how to use them, please hover over the question marks to get short explanations.

Expert search

Make complex searches by:

- 1 Signing in with your My EUR-Lex account
- 2 Clicking Expert search in the top right corner of your screen.

How to perform an expert search

- 1 Select your Search language.
- 2 Enter your search parameters in the Expert query box, using the appropriate syntax, in 1 of 2 ways:
 - 2.1 type your query manually in the box
 - 2.2 use the system prompts
 - 2.3 click an item in Search fields and the system will add the relevant field to the query box, as well as displaying (on the right) information and the appropriate help.

Codes or full names

By default search fields are entered in the query box as a code (e.g. TI). To display search fields with their full name (e.g. Title), select the radio button Text, below the box.

Your query can contain a mix of codes for some fields and full names for others.

⚠ The search fields (and their explanation) are only visible if JavaScript is enabled in your browser.

- 2.4 You can also use the blue buttons in the toolbox to the right of the query box to add search operators, wildcards or field specifiers.

See more in the next chapter: Syntax & search operators.

- 3 Click Search.

If your syntax is invalid, the system will display an error message.

You can also manually check if your syntax is valid by pressing the Check syntax button.

❗ To empty all fields, click Clear.

Syntax & search operators

Your expert search query must contain at least the following 3 elements (in this order):

	Search field (metadata)	Field specifier	Search term
Example:	Title	~	Europa

You can create more complex queries by using search operators, like AND.

Example

Title	~	Europa	AND	Author	=	COM
Search field	Field specifier	Search term	Search operator	Search field	Field specifier	Search term

Operators

For more complex queries. Type them in manually or use the blue buttons on the right side of your screen.

Operator	Function
AND	Finds results that contain all your search terms
OR	Finds results that contain at least one of your search terms
NOT	Excludes search terms from your results
WHEN	Searches for a subset of a larger parent group
()	Groups search terms and specifies the order in which they are interpreted
NEAR10	Finds search terms within 10 words of each other
NEAR40	Finds search terms within 40 words of each other
*	Substitutes for 0 to n characters
?	Substitutes for a single character
<	Less than
<=	Less than or equal to
>	Greater than
>=	Greater than or equal to

<>	Not equal to
=	Equal to; to be used only for Coded data when searching for an exact match of the search term and result
~	Contains; to be used only for Text data when searching for documents containing your search term

Searching for specific terms

	Query	Finds
By default, EUR-Lex will search for all words derived from the basic root word you enter.	Text ~ equal	Documents containing the term 'equal', but also e. g. 'equality' or 'equalization' in the text.
To search only for the precise term , use quotations marks	Text ~ "equal"	Documents containing only the term 'equal' in the text.
AND Finds results that contain all your search terms	Text ~ personal AND data	Documents containing the words 'personal' and 'data' in the text.
	Title ~ "equal treatment" AND Text ~ fundamental	Documents with the words "equal treatment" in the title and the words "fundamental" in the text.
	Title ~ "personal data" AND Collection = LEGISLATION	Legislation containing the phrase 'personal data' in the title.
OR Finds results that contain at least 1 of your search terms:	Title ~ "equal treatment" OR Text ~ fundamental	Documents that have either the words "equal treatment" in the title or the word "fundamental" in the text.
NOT Excludes search terms from your results:	Title ~ "equal treatment" NOT Text ~ fundamental	Documents that have the words "equal treatment" in the title, but which do not have the word "fundamental" in the text.

- ❗ You cannot combine a full text search with a search on other Search fields (metadata) by using the OR operator.
- Title ~ "personal data" OR Collection = LEGISLATION* is not a valid query
- To combine these 2 elements of your search, you would instead have to use either the AND or NOT operators.
- Title ~ "personal data" AND Collection = LEGISLATION* is a valid query
- Title ~ "personal data" NOT Collection = LEGISLATION* is a valid query

Order of precedence of AND, OR and NOT operators

There is a fixed order of precedence between these operators.

'NOT' has precedence over 'AND', and 'AND' has precedence over 'OR'.

Example

Query	Finds
Title ~ equal AND treatment NOT rights OR Text ~ fundamental	Documents whose title contains: <ul style="list-style-type: none">both 'equal' AND 'treatment', but NOT 'rights' OR <ul style="list-style-type: none">'fundamental' in the text To specify a different priority, use brackets .

BRACKETS ()

You can use brackets to group elements in your query and specify the order in which they will be interpreted – even to change the default priority order between AND, NOT and OR.

	Query	Finds
NO BRACKETS	Title ~ equal AND treatment OR rights	Documents whose title contains: <ul style="list-style-type: none">both 'equal' AND 'treatment' OR <ul style="list-style-type: none">only the word 'rights'
WITH BRACKETS ()	Title ~ equal AND (treatment OR rights)	Documents whose title contains either : <ul style="list-style-type: none">'equal' and 'treatment' OR <ul style="list-style-type: none">'equal' and 'rights'

WHEN

Use this to find a subset of a larger parent group. WHEN functions similarly to AND, but is more restrictive.

Example

Query	Finds
Legal_basis = 32012R1151 WHEN Legal_basis_paragraph = 3	Documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none">whose legal basis is the document with CELEX number 32012R1151, and which are based on paragraph 3 of that document.

NEAR10

Finds terms within 10 words of a specified other term.

Example

Query	Finds
Text ~ "transport" NEAR10 "perishable"	Documents containing the words 'transport' and 'perishable' within 10 words of each other (regardless of sentences and paragraphs).

NEAR40

Functions as NEAR10 but within 40 words of a specified term.

❗ You can only use NEAR10 and NEAR40 for text searches.

WILDCARDS (* and ?)

Query	Finds
* Substitutes for 0 to n characters	expe* will find expert , expenditure , expectation , etc.
? Substitutes for a single character	ca?e will find case , care , cane , etc.

❗ Wildcards cannot be used to begin a search term.

*Text ~ tation is not a valid query.

RANGES

To enter a range of values for dates or numbers, use the following operators:

Query	Finds
< (less than)	For dates, this means "before" e.g. Date_of_publication < 01/01/2015
<= (less than or equal to)
> (greater than)
>= (greater than or equal to)
<> (not equal to)

EQUALS (=)

Finds results that match your search term exactly. The operator is automatically added to the appropriate fields when chosen from Search fields.

⚠ Note: the equals operator cannot be used with text data.

E.g. fields for dates or numbers will return results for that exact date or number.

Query	Finds
Date_of_publication = 16/11/2010	Documents published on 16/11/2010 only.

TILDE (~)

Finds all texts containing the search term you enter.

Query	Finds
Title ~ Commission	Documents whose title contains the word 'Commission'.

Search fields

The search fields are displayed below the expert search box, on the left side.

These are all the fields you can search on, grouped into categories. By default only the top levels are shown. Click on them to display or hide the sub-levels.

Help for the search fields

When you click an item in the list of search fields, the system displays (to the right of the list) explanations, examples and tips on how to use that field:

Values (list form)

For some types of fields (e.g. Documents → Coded data → Classifications → Subject_matter (CT)), the system displays a list of possible values that you can select for your search (check the box in front of your desired value(s) and click the Add to query button).

To find a specific value – type it in the Filter box at the top of the list and click the Filter button.

Values (tree form)

Some values are displayed in tree form (e.g. Documents → Coded data → Classifications → EUROVOC_descriptor (DC)).

Click ► to expand an item and check the box in front of your desired value(s) to select it (you can select multiple values).

To find a specific value – type it in the Filterbox at the top of the list and click the Filter button.

Click the Add to query button (multiple values will be separated by 'OR').

Search by date

Search by an exact date or a range of dates:

 - 1.1 Exact date
 - 1.2 Range of date
- 2 Type the dates manually (DD/MM/YYYY) or use the calendar button .
- 3 Click the Add to query button.

Relationships between documents

To search for documents by relationship (e.g. find a document amended by another, or a document affected by a certain case):

- 1 Click Documents → Coded data → Relationship between documents.
- 2 Click a type of relationship, e.g. Amended_by (MD).
- 3 On the right you will see:
 - 3.1 a field for the CELEX number
 -  If the CELEX number contains brackets, please put it in quotation marks (e.g. "42000A0922(02)").
 - 3.2 in some cases also a dropdown for the Primary role, where you can be much more specific about the relationship.
- 4 Click one of the values in the results list.
- 5 Click the Add to query button.

 The fields for Legal Basis allow you to specify your search on a specific article, paragraph or even subparagraph.

Comments on the relationships between documents

You can also search on the comments made to relationships between documents. Examples of fields with comments on relationships between documents include: Documents → Coded data → Relationship between documents → Case_affecting (AJ); Instruments_cited (CI); or Legal_basis (LB).

To search on comments made on relationships between documents see procedure described above in "Relationships between documents".

Personalise your search results

Bellow the Expert query box, you can use the Customise shown information button to change how your results are displayed.

Highlighting words in your results – Text ZOOM

To highlight – in your results list – words from any text fields you are searching with:

- 1 Click Text ZOOM (under Metadata to display).
- 2 Select the number of words to be displayed before/after your search terms.

The filters are arranged by category.

For each filter, the number of related results is displayed in parentheses. In general, filters are ordered by the number of related results in descending order (the filters with the highest numbers are listed first).

Only the filters with the highest numbers of related results are displayed.

When you click a filter:
the list of results is updated and shows only those results corresponding to the new criterion you selected the new criterion is added to the Search criteria box above the list of results

all the filters you selected are listed at the top of the filter list under the heading 'You have selected'

if you save the search at this point, it will be saved in its new form, taking into account the filters you selected.

You can select more than one filter. More filters mean fewer and more targeted results.

Customise the results list

The results list has a default format.

You can customise how the list looks after you have performed a search, without having to sign in.

Once signed in, you can make the changes permanent via Preferences > Search preferences.

More on setting your search preferences

Change the information displayed in the results list

- 1 Click Customise shown information just above the first result.

- 2 If you have already created some specific profiles (only for signed in users), you can choose one of them.
Otherwise, the standard profile is selected automatically.
- 3 Choose the information you want to display by selecting the corresponding check boxes.
This information will also be added to the results when you print, save or export them.
Some information cannot be removed from the selection, including titles and CELEX numbers.
- 4 Click Apply at the bottom of the window. Your changes will NOT be saved if you click outside the window and return to the results list.

The settings saved in the Customise shown information dialogue box apply to your entire session. This includes the number of results per page, the metadata to be displayed and the possibility to highlight the searched terms in the results list.

If you have performed an expert search, more options are available in this dialogue box: sorting and ordering options, opening the Expert search result page in a new window, zoom functionality (number of words).

Sort search results – ‘Sort by’

You can select your sort criteria in the Sort by menu. By default, search results are sorted in descending order of relevance.

Available sort criteria:

- Relevant: Documents are sorted according to their relevance, mostly from a legal perspective. They are divided into three groups. A document belonging to the first group is displayed before those from the second and third groups. There are additional rules. The ultimate aim is to meet most user expectations.
 - Group 1 includes regulations, directives and decisions in force adopted by the Council (and) or the European Parliament or Commission; complete texts of Treaties from 2012.
 - Group 2 includes legislation, international agreements, preparatory acts, EU case-law, European Free Trade Association documents and complete texts of Treaties not included in group 1.
 - Group 3 comprises corrigenda and all the other documents not included in groups 1 and 2.

The list of documents in each group may be subject to periodic revision.

- Document title: Documents are sorted according to their titles in alphabetical order.
- Document identifier: Documents are sorted according to their CELEX identifier. More on CELEX
- Document date: Documents are sorted according to document date – usually the dates present in the title.

You can specify if you want the above criteria to be applied in descending or ascending order. If several results match your query, they are listed in ascending order using the CELEX number – the document with the smallest CELEX number comes first.

The available sort criteria vary with the type of search (quick, advanced or expert) and the collection you selected in the advanced search.

If you are signed in, you can modify the default settings under Search preferences in your account.

My searches

‘My searches’ is a fast way to repeat searches you have already made, without needing to enter the search criteria again.

Every search you make during a session on EUR-Lex is saved, even if you are not signed in. You can find your recent searches by clicking My EUR-Lex and then My recent searches.

All your recent searches are listed together with information such as: type of search (quick /advanced/expert), domain/subdomain, date and time, language, number of results.

If your search was an advanced or an expert search, you can edit it by clicking the pencil icon . You can re-run your recent searches by clicking the magnifying glass icon . As EUR-Lex is frequently updated with new documents, when you re-run a search, the results may differ from earlier searches using these criteria.

And if you are signed in, you can save your recent searches by clicking the Save icon .

The advantage of this is that you can give each search a meaningful name, to help you select it from the list more easily – especially useful for searches you might run repeatedly.

Check syntax

In the 'Combined search' field, create a search by combining multiple search identifiers ('Id' in the first column of 'My saved searches' and 'My recent searches') with one of the 3 operators AND, OR or NOT.

The search operators are evaluated in the following order: NOT → AND → OR.

Examples

1 AND 2 OR 3 → the system first checks 1 AND 2 and then OR 3 condition.

1 AND 2 NOT 3 → the system first checks 2 NOT 3 and then 1 AND condition.

You can change this order of precedence using brackets.

Examples

(1 AND 2) NOT 3 → the system first checks 1 AND 2 and then NOT 3 condition.

To see if your new search will work, click Check syntax. If the syntax is correct, you will see the message The query is valid. If the system detects a problem, it displays an error message prompting you to make the necessary changes.

Click Search and the results will be displayed.

Once you run a combined search, it is considered by the system to be an expert search – if you want to edit this search later, the expert search page is opened.

About the Official Journal

The Official Journal of the European Union is the official publication for EU legal acts.

It is published by the Publications Office of the European Union daily from Monday to Friday in 24 official EU languages.

In urgent cases, the Official Journal is published on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

EUR-Lex contains electronic versions of all Official Journals since the first edition.

From 1 July 2013 only the electronic editions of the Official Journal are authentic and produce legal effects.

From 1 October 2023, the Official Journal is no longer a collation of acts with a table of contents. Each act is published individually as an authentic Official Journal in its PDF format.

You can buy a non-authentic printed version of an Official Journal issue via the Portal of the Publications Office. As these printed versions are created on demand, they incur printing and postage fees.

See more at Official Journal of the European Union.

The 'Official Journal' box on the homepage contains links to the latest published editions.

There you can see at a glance how many acts of the L and C series are available for the day.

Clicking 'Official Journal' takes you to the Official Journal page with search options for all editions.

There you can run a search by indicating a date range or specific references like the year of publication, the series and the document number of the OJ you are looking for.

The most recently published acts are also directly available.

The results of your search are sorted by dates and series.

For Official Journals published up to 30/09/2023, EUR-Lex displays the references of the Official Journals published on a specific date for the L and C series. Click on them to access the related OJ pages.

For Official Journals published from 01/10/2023, EUR-Lex displays the number of Official Journals for each series on a specific date. Click on the links to access the daily view of the related series.

Using the menu on the left-hand side, you can access the following specific pages related to the Official Journal:

- Official Journal L Series daily view

You can consult the structure of the Official Journal before it switched to act-by-act publication on 1 October 2023. For more information on the structure of the Official Journal, please consult the Interinstitutional Style Guide.

Verify the authenticity of an electronic edition of the Official Journal

As of 1 July 2013 only the electronic edition of the Official Journal of the European Union (the e-OJ) is authentic and produces legal effects (see Council Regulation \(EU\) No 216/2013).

Paper versions no longer have any legal value, except for cases where – due to an unforeseen and exceptional disruption of the Publications Office's IT systems – the e-OJ cannot be published. Find paper versions of the Official Journal with legal effect.

The e-OJ bears an electronic signature, which ensures the authenticity, integrity and inalterability of the electronic edition.

How to verify authenticity

— You can verify the electronic signature and authentic character of the e-OJ using the CheckLex application or any third-party verification application that complies with the set standards. If this verification succeeds, you are guaranteed that:

- the electronic edition is authentic;
- it has not been changed since the date of its signature.

Verification requires the following steps:

- Download the PDF version of the e-OJ and its signature file
- Save them to your computer or device
- Upload the 2 files to CheckLex, by clicking the Select document and Select Associated Signature buttons. Make sure you are uploading the right pair of files, otherwise the verification will fail.
- Click the Verify Signature button. Verification takes only a couple of seconds.

If the verification fails, you will get an error message, informing you what went wrong.

— In some cases, when no e-signature is shown as a separate file, the signature is directly part of the PDF file. In those cases, verification can be performed by using any third-party verification application that complies with the set standards.

See more about:

- CheckLex - on the About page and the FAQ .

Reuse EUR-Lex content

You can re-use EUR-Lex data, free of charge, subject to copyright conditions. There are different ways to search for content and retrieve it for reuse.

Webservice

If you are a registered user, you can search on EUR-Lex directly using webservices. The search options are similar to those in 'expert search'. They supply data in XML format. More on how to use webservice.

Bulk downloads

Data dump

With the data dump, you can currently download in bulk all legal acts (CELEX sector 3) in force per language.

To access the data dump you will need an EU login account .
datadump.publications.europa.eu

data.europa.eu

On data.europa.eu, the official portal for European data, you can download a list of Official Journals (L and C series) published per year (from 2004 onward) and per language. The list can be downloaded in csv format and contains a link to each Official Journal in XML Formex format.

data.europa.eu

Direct access to the database

To process data in a more sophisticated way, you can request:

- 1 Notifications via database RSS feeds – to notify you of every single change. These feeds may return very large numbers of notifications (millions a day).
- 2 Direct access to your selection of content and metadata in the database, via the REST interface.

If you are interested in direct access, please contact us. We will send you additional documentation. Note that, given its complexity, you will need to involve technical experts.

Data repository

The information displayed in EUR-Lex is retrieved from the common repository of metadata and content (Cellar). Cellar is based on semantic technologies, a framework of several standards.

The data in Cellar are not limited to the legal documents and information published in EUR-Lex, but they also include other EU publications (books, leaflets, etc.). Data stored in Cellar can be directly accessed via the SPARQL endpoint and the RESTful API.

Through the SPARQL endpoint you can query all the metadata available in Cellar, including the relationship between the various entities. With the RESTful API you can retrieve specific sets of metadata (often called notices) and download the document content files. Both of these choices are available in various formats (PDF, HTML, Formex, etc.).

You can find out more and access the latest user manual, which includes information on the Cellar and its Restful API, on the Cellar website. You can query the metadata in Cellar through the SPARQL endpoint.

Data model

The structure of the data in Cellar is defined in the Common Data Model (CDM), which is based on semantic technologies like RDF Schema and OWL. Current and past versions of the CDM are available on the EU Vocabularies website.

Together with the definition of the ontology, the EU Vocabularies website also contains definitions for controlled vocabularies, taxonomies and the thesauruses used by Cellar. In particular, the EU Vocabularies website provides the various authority tables used in metadata values to refer to specific entities or concepts, such as corporate body, treaty, country or language.

Document formats

The documents available in Cellar and in EUR-Lex are provided in various standard formats, depending on their availability: PDF, HTML, XHTML, etc.

A significant portion of the documents, in particular, those published in the Official Journal, are also available in a specific XML format called Formex. More information about this format is available on the Formex website.

Webservice

EUR-Lex webservice is a way for registered users to query EUR-Lex directly, without having to make a search on the website.

They offer query options similar to the ones you find in the expert search, and deliver the data in XML format. Any search made on the website can also be done via the webservice, including full text search. This web service is based on the SOAP protocol and is freely available after registration.

Although the webservice allows you to search within the text of the documents themselves, it cannot be used to directly download the document files.

You can download these based on their identifier, either via the Cellar RESTful API or by creating a URL as described in our guidelines for stable links.

If you need a simpler way to stay up to date, you can use RSS feeds – predefined or customised.

Registration

How to register for a webservice:

- 1 Click Webservice registration.
- 2 Click Register if you do not have an EU Login account.
- 3 Once you have created an account, click Sign in. Read more on how to register on EUR-Lex.
- 4 Click Register and fill out the registration form (see table below).
- 5 Click Save to send us the form.
- 6 If your form checks out, we will send you an e-mail specifying your access rights.

Once your access to the webservice has been approved, you can get a special XML template to use for every query you make:

- 1 Sign in and run a search (quick, advanced or expert).
- 2 Click the webservices template icon at the top of the search results.
- 3 A new window will open with the query written in a structured way and instructions on how to use it in your webservice call.

You can copy this template and use it for all subsequent webservice calls.

Create permanent links

A permanent link (also known as a stable link) is a link that will not change over time. Using a permanent link guarantees ongoing access to the content the link points to.

There are several ways to create permanent links to EUR-Lex content. When doing so, please make sure to respect the EUR-Lex copyright notice.

You can create a permanent link to:

- a page on the website in a specific language version
- a specific edition of the Official Journal of the European Union (OJ)
- a specific document by using an identifier.

For specific language versions the following language codes are used:

/* Center the text in columns 2 through 13 in the table */ .table-striped th:nth-child(n+2), .table-striped td:nth-child(n+2) { text-align: center; }

Language	Bulgarian	Croatian	Czech	Danish	Dutch	English	Estonian	Finnish	French	German
Two-letter code	bg	hr	cs	da	nl	en	et	fi	fr	de
Three-letter code	BUL	HRV	CES	DAN	NLD	ENG	EST	FIN	FRA	DEU

/* Center the text in columns 2 through 13 in the table */ .table-striped th:nth-child(n+2), .table-striped td:nth-child(n+2) { text-align: center; }

Language	Irish	Italian	Latvian	Lithuanian	Maltese	Polish	Portuguese	Romanian	Slovak	Slovenian
Two-letter code	ga	it	lv	lt	mt	pl	pt	ro	sk	sl
Three-letter code	GLE	ITA	LAV	LIT	MLT	POL	POR	RON	SLK	SLO

To link to a page in a specific language version, add one of the two-letter language codes after 'locale=' in the link.

Link structure: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/{page name}.html?locale={two-letter language code}>

Examples:

- Link to a collection page in Danish: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/collection/eu-law/consleg.html?locale=da>
- Link to the OJ direct access page in English: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/oj/direct-access.html?locale=en>

On 1 October 2023, the Official Journal of the European Union switched to act-by-act publication. As a result, there are different permanent links for pre-act-by-act OJs and post-act-by-act OJs.

The permanent links to specific editions of the Official Journal include the following parts:

- year: 4 digits {year}
- OJ number: 3 digits {xxx} for pre-act-by-act OJs and 5 digits {xxxxx} for post-act-by-act OJs
- OJ series: Capital letter, e.g. L or C
- page number for pre-act-by-act OJs: 4 digits {zzzz}
- two- and/or three-letter language code.

Depending on the type of document, you can create permanent links to other specific views:

ELI

The European Legislation Identifier (ELI) is a system to make legislation available online in a standardised format, so it can be accessed, exchanged and reused across borders. It can be used for EU and for national legislation.

Read more about ELI.

Basic link structure: <http://data.europa.eu/eli/{typedoc}/{year}/{natural number}/oj>

If you remove 'oj' from the URI structure the link gives access to the most recent consolidated version of the act if such a version exists, for example <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2009/496> . If there have been some recent amendments that have not yet been consolidated, it will display a results list with both the latest consolidated version and the unconsolidated amendments.

Although the link contains the data.europa.eu domain, the returned page will be a document or a search result from the EUR-Lex website.

To include the type of document in an ELI link, use the following URI structure:

<http://data.europa.eu/eli/{typedoc}/{year}/{natural number}/oj/>

Examples:

- Directives (dir or dir_impl or dir_del): <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dir/2000/60/oj>
- Regulations (reg or reg_impl or reg_del): <http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2013/216/oj>
- Decisions (typedoc either dec or dec_impl or dec_del): <http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2009/496/oj>

To include the language and/or the format of a document in an ELI link, use the following URI structure:

<http://data.europa.eu/eli/{typedoc}/{year}/{natural number}/oj/{three-letter language code}/{format}>

Examples:

- Italian text version: <https://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2013/666/oj/ita>
- Hungarian HTML version: <https://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2011/327/oj/hun/html>
- Dutch PDF version: <https://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2024/1834/oj/nld/pdf>

ELI offers many more possibilities, including the option to create links to lists of documents that meet certain criteria. Detailed information on URIs of EU legislation using ELI

ECLI

The European Case Law Identifier (ECLI) is a 5-part identifier for EU and national case-law. The link structure for the ECLI is similar to other EUR-Lex links.

- ‘Text’ view: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/FR/TXT/?uri=ecli:ECLI:EU:C:2016:718>
- HTML view: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/SL/TXT/HTML/?uri=ecli:ECLI:EU:C:2016:718>
- XML notice: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/XML/?uri=ecli:ECLI:EU:F:2016:177>

Read more about how to construct an ECLI identifier.

Other types of identifiers

Some legal documents and procedures on EUR-Lex have identifiers that are attributed by the institution that created the documents (unlike the CELEX number, which is assigned by the Publications Office of the European Union). As a result, while it is possible to identify patterns in their links, the sequence and logic of the reference numbers themselves follow the rules of the institution that is the document’s author.

Some examples are described below.

Preparatory documents adopted by the European Commission

Links to published preparatory documents (COM, JOIN, SWD, SEC documents) are based on the number of the document itself. In the days following the publication of the preparatory documents, a CELEX identifier is assigned to them, but these documents will also remain accessible with the links based on the number of the documents.

Basic link structures for a 'Text' view:

- <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/{two-letter language code}/TXT/?uri={preparatory document type}:{year}:{document number}:FIN>
- <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/{two-letter language code}/TXT/?uri={preparatory document type}:{year}:{document number}:REV1>
- <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/{two-letter language code}/TXT/?uri=CELEX:{sector number}{year}{descriptor}{document number}>
