

Crack the Code

Purpose: Understand how using emojis can make communication easier or more difficult.

Images like emojis can help people communicate faster and understand each other even if they don't speak the same language. But it can be tricky to make sure everyone reads them the same way.

Can you decode the hidden messages in these emojis? Look at each set of emojis and write down what you think they mean. We've done the first one for you.

It's raining cats and dogs.

Share and Compare!

Emojis can mean different things to different people. Team up with another classmate to see how your guesses match up. Are your answers the same or different?

Now work together to create an emoji sentence that will help you communicate this sentence: “Be kind online.”

Answers: 1) It's raining cats and dogs. 2) No pain, no gain. 3) Time flies when you're having fun. 4) All your eggs in one basket. 5) Don't cry over spilled milk. 6) Stop, drop and roll.